WHERE and when did Mr. Harrison Johnson get that medical diploms? By what rule of logic does he assume that the BEE's reference to Doctor Johnson concerns him?

REVEREND MR. MORRIS, as Government whisky inspector, is the right man in the right place, but when the Reverend whisky manipulator tries to play the temperance reformer he assumes a very awkward role.

Mr. HARRISON JOHNSON proclaims through the Herald that he is in the saddle, upon the horse of justice, and will go forth to battle in the interests of the industrial classes to relieve them from the oppression of corrupt politicians and grinding monopolies. That's a noble mission. How about free trade, are you still in favor of that hobby?

AND if the the Omaha Bee wants to know how it does, or don't stand, on the temperance crusade, let it consult its own dumb columns for the last six-weeks, and it may or not ascertain what other people are to-tally unable to find out.—Herald-If the BEE had reviled and denounced Temperance in the morning and its Editor had delivered a rabid temperance speech in a church ATTORNEYS ATLAW. day, it might have been necessary

WASHINGTON, March 29. After mature deliberation on Dio Lewis's suggestion to begin a wemen's crusade in Washington the temperance leaders have decided that in view of the pecular difficulties likely to be encountered, not to adopt but make united efforts to erganize temperance societies and induce persons to join them. Fears are entertained that the prayer movement would meet with disapday, it might have been necessary to explain its acrobatic performanmeasures prohibiting which Con-cress is asked to sanction. Daily prayer meetings in behalf of total abstinece are to be continued this week. The ladies propose to visit the salcons in companies of two and three and make personal appeals.

POUKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 29. About four o'clock Saturday afternoon, as the ferry boat, J. C. Doughty, was leaving at this place, a horse belonging to Mr. Welsh of Ulster county, became unmanageable and backed the wagon containing Mr. Welsh, his wife and child off the boat, and before assistance could be rendered, all were drowned except Mr. Welsh, who was fatally injured.

NEW YORK, March 29. The steamer Coloma sailed yesterday for Aspinwall, with 740 tons of freight.

PHILADELPHIA, Merch 29. Pursuant to orders from Governor Hartranfi, the first regiment of Pennsylvania militia has been under a ms all day waiting developments at the Susquehanna department. Three hundred and fifty will leave for that place at 8 o'clock to-night. The first city troops and cavalry have been ordered to night o the scene of trouble.

ROME, March 30. It is reported that King Victor Emanuel has burnt an address sent to him from a number of citizens of Trieste, because it contained obnoxious sentiments toward Austria, PARIS, March 29. It is currently rumored that Rochester Paschal Green has es caped penal colony from New Cale-donia to Austria.

The Assembly adjourned yesterday intil the 12th. Great excitement was created here on Saturday by a rumor of the death of ex-President Thiers, which proved to be unfounded.

The Republican candidates for the Assembly have been elected in the Department of the Haute Marne.

MADRID, March 29. Marshall Serrano's attack on Pedro has been successful.

The Carlists were driven before Santa Carlist forces in Valceneia under the command of General Santa and have been defeated by Govern-ment troops with a loss of eighty killed and two hundred taken prisoners. In the last engagement before Bilboa, General Primo de Reviva was seriously and General Loma slightly wounded.

'LONDON, March 29. The steamer bringing the remains of Dr. Livingstone arrived at Suez and left by canal for Southampton. The Times correspondent at Mar-shall Serrano's headquarters tele-graphs that the loss in the battle of Friday, before Bilboa, were enor-mous. When the National troops heard this they refused quarter.
General Loma was seriously wounded and two of his colonels killed. The Queen will review the troops of the Ashantee expedition at 10 o'clock at Windsor Castle. After the review a dinner will be given the troops. Baronet will be conferred on General Woolsey.

Wreck of the Ship Moses Day.

LONDON,-NOON, March 28. The boats having been placed in position, all preliminaries settled, signal given from the umpires, and both boats shot forward in a great struggle for the University cham-pionship. They kept well together, both crews displaying good advan-tage and excellent training, neither appearing to obtain material advantage until they came to the soap works when the Cambridge commenced gaining steadily, and at Hammer Smith bridge a terrific struggle took place for the lead, both crews strained every nerve. Cautabs, however, still continued ahead, and at Carney Rich the boats were about a length apart, and Oxford had no chance of regaining lost honors. Cam-bridge, without being headed during the whole race, passed the winning point two lenghths in advance. As the successful crew passed the win-ning line a prolonged shout are a from the multitude, and taking up reached along the whole line. The backers of Cautabs were Jubilent over the successive victories of their favorites. The winning crew was quickly surrounded by congratula-ting friends, and cheer after cheer was given in honor of their victory.

LONDON, 9 A. M. March 29. To-day was a great day in aquatic circles, and has been long looked for. The light oared contest between Cambridge and Oxford, opened bright and clear. The usual crowds of pedestrians at an early hour, and the roads to Thames densely througed. Every highway from London is crowded with vechicles of every description, and the bridges crossing the river are already crowded. Every available stand point is eagerly sought for, and crowded with people, and steam-boats of all kinds. Busines of all kinds is neglected to witness the great struggle for the blue ribbon. Never was London more numerously represented, Cambridge being favorites. The water was smooth and everything was favorable. The Lake; distant being three mile three-quarters.
